Received date 10/04/2006

Archival History: Donated to the DCHRC by Christie Golden.

Scope and Content / Abstract:

Manuscripts, galleys and e-mails written and edited in support of books by Christie Golden (see container list for titles). The books are both original creations (A. D. 999, King's Man and Thief, Instrument of Fate) and novels written in support of established series (Star Trek, Ravenloft, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, Warcraft.) The collection also contains notes and reference materials gathered in support of the writing, including materials on the Celts, the Anglo Saxons, English history, religion, mythology, paganism, and various aspects of science.

Processing Date: 10/04/2006

Structure:

System of Arrangement: Materials are arranged by the series the books were written for (chronologically) then chronologically within the series (except for the Buffy the Vampire Slayer chapter, which is first due to space considerations.)

Context:

Dates of accumulation: 1995-2001

Name of Creator or Compiler of the Collection: Golden, Christie

Administrative / Biographical history: Christie Golden was a resident of Highlands Ranch. She and her husband Michael Georges (painter) are frequent speakers at science fiction conventions in Colorado.

The following is from her website (christiegolden.com 10/9/2006):

Award-winning author Christie Golden has written twenty-five novels and several short stories in the fields of science fiction, fantasy and horror. She has over a million books in print.

2004 sees the launch of a brand new, multibook fantasy series called The Final Dance, from new fantasy imprint LUNA. The first novel in the series, On Fire's Wings, will be out in trade paperback in July.

Golden is also the author of two original fantasy novels from Ace Books, King's Man and Thief and Instrument of Fate, which made the 1996 Nebula Preliminary Ballot. Under the pen name of Jadrien Bell, she wrote a historical fantasy thriller entitled A.D. 999, which won the Colorado Author's League Top Hand Award for Best Genre Novel of 1999. All are now sadly out of print, but snag Christie and see if she has any copies for sale.

Golden launched the TSR Ravenloft line in 1991 with her first novel, the highly successful Vampire of the Mists, which introduced elven vampire Jander Sunstar. Golden followed up Vampire with Dance of the Dead and The Enemy Within.

Other projects include a slew of Star Trek novels, among them The Murdered Sun, Marooned, and Seven of Nine, and "The Dark Matters Trilogy," Cloak and Dagger, Ghost Dance and Shadow of Heaven.

The Voyager novel relaunch, which includes Homecoming and The Farther Shore, were bestsellers and were the fastest-selling Trek novels of 2003. Golden has continued writing VOYAGER novels even though the show is off the air, and is eager to explore the creative freedom that gives her. Look for the next two-parter called Spirit Walk, which includes Old Wounds and Enemy of my Enemy. Both books will be published in late 2004.

Golden has also written the novelization of Steven Spielberg's Invasion America and an original "prequel," On The Run, both of which received high praise from producer Harve Bennett. On The Run, a combination medical thriller and science fiction adventure, even prompted Bennett to invite Golden to assist in crafting the second season of the show, if it was renewed.

Golden lives in Loveland, Colorado, with her artist husband Michael Georges and their two cats.
