Archival History: These records were collected by Elizabeth (Bette) Gilbert Saunders as a result of attending the Cherry Valley School (Cherry Valley, Colorado), and the Douglas County High School (Castle Rock, Colorado). The records were donated to the Douglas County History Research Center - Douglas County Libraries in 1993.Scope and Content / Abstract:

The collection includes biographical information about Bette Saunders and her family, certificates of promotion/classification, a class list from 1934; a class night program from 1914; a poem by Naomi Butler, 1916; Commencement invitations and programs, 1899 - 1964; eight grade graduation programs, 1900 - 1967; a memorial service program for President Harding, 1923; Douglas County High School play programs, 1930 - 1935; Theodora Noyes sewing cards, undated and clippings and programs from the Moseley and Bassell writing contests, 1913 - 1916. The collection documents school programming, graduation classes and extracurricular activities as well as Bette Saunders' own experiences in school.

Lists of graduates and students are particularly important and fairly complete for certain years. Most of the graduates have been included in an online index (<http://www.douglascountyhistory.org/reference/schools.htm>) and as part of the finding aid.

Name of Creator or Compiler of the Collection: Sylvia Elizabeth (Bette) Gilbert Saunders

Administrative / Biographical history: Elizabeth (Bette) Gilbert Saunders was born Sylvia Elizabeth Gilbert on October 31, 1914, in Castle Rock, Colorado. Her mother, Althea Theodora Irene Noyes, was born in Castle Rock on September 24, 1890. Her father, David Newton Gilbert, was born on February 28, 1886 in Simpson, Kansas. Ms. Saunders parents were married at St. Johns Cathedral, Denver, Colorado, on January 20, 1910.

Ms. Saunders had two brothers, Jack and Donald, and one sister, Corinth. She was married to Ben Saunders (born September 26, 1914 in Sedalia, Colorado) on December 9th, 1945.

Ms. Saunders attended the Cherry School in Cherry Valley, Colorado, and the Douglas County High School in Castle Rock, Colorado. David Gilbert, her father, was Mayor of Castle Rock at one point, and they had a ranch in Cherry Valley. Prior to her death in 2004, Mrs. Saunders was considered a local historian in the Castle Rock area.
