Note (Abstract)

Scrapbooks kept by Ollie Scholz (Mrs. Karl Scholz) in Castle Rock from 1915-1963. Years 1953 and 1954 missing and 1927-1931 not covered. Generally the scrapbooks contain newspaper clippings relating to people and events in and around Castle Rock, birthday cards, get well cards, invitations, and photos. The 1915, 1916 and 1926 clippings are pasted in a Sedalia railroad receipt book from 1898.

Historical Note

Ollie Brown Scholz was born December 11, 1896 at Lee Summit, MO, daughter of Burnwood and Nonnie (Jones) Brown. She moved to Douglas County with her family in 1909. Before her marriage, Ollie lived with her family on the Brown Ranch on West Plum Creek. Ollie married Karl Scholz in 1920, and they lived in Castle Rock during their marriage. She was one of five children: Mabel, George W., Maude (Wolfensburger), and Harry B. were her siblings. The Scholzes had no children. After Ollie's death in 1964, Karl remarried twice.

Scope and Content

Scrapbooks contain clippings and items from the following years: 1915, 1916, 1926 pasted in Railroad receipt book from 1898; 1932-1939; 1940-1943; 1943-1948; 1948-1952; 1955-1958; 1958-1963. There is also a scrapbook containing newspaper clippings of poems. The clippings provide biographical and historical information of people, places and events in Douglas County. Included are 411 names from newspaper announcements of marriages and death. Items of historical interest are newspaper stories relating to the Phipps Ranch (now Highlands Ranch), Cherokee Ranch, Shamballa Ashrama, tornadoes and hazards in Castle Rock, election results and census reports for Douglas County, Dynamite blast at Louviers and many stories about World War II.
